CORRESPONDENCE

ADDRESS

I am still alive and all right
It is quite cold this morning Mrs M. C. C. C. but at seven o'clock they are going to draw their coats out and throw some of them to day and the wheat is nearly all combined all around the crops are all very good we are finishing the coats this week and then he say he is going up to C. C. C. C.
So don't look for me to soon am getting along very good going here and there.
